From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 8.

Vienna, March 25.

SOME Letters here say, that the King of Sweden being come to Adrianople, had by the Intermediation of the Kiliar Aga regained the Friendship of the Sultan; but this is much to be suspected, because other Letters say the contrary. Among the Swedish Officers arrived here, is Collonel Klinstad who accompanied King Stanislaus to Bender: He says, 30 Officers more are coming, who have purchased their Liberty. The Baron de Falkenstein, Minister of the Abbot of St. Gall, received Yesterday in his Master's Name, the Investiture of his Fief of the Empire, in which are comprehended all the Prerogatives of the County of Toggenbourg. A Report is spread here, that the Czar of Muscovy intends to offer to the Emperour 30000 Men, and the King of Prussia 18000.

Berlin, April 1. 'An Accommodation is set on 'Foot by the Baron Gourtz, Minister of Gottorp, 'by which it is believed the Administrator will 'not only be restored in Schleswig, Holstein, and 'Eutin, but will also reserve his Pretentions for 'Satisfaction for the Damages his Dominions has 'sustained. It is not improbable too, that this 'Accommodation may be followed by another 'with Count Steinbock, and that he may be permitted to transport his Troops into Sweden. We 'hear, that upon the Instances of his Danish Majesty, the Muscovite Troops have quitted their 'Design of burning the Towns in Pomerania. The 'Privy Councellor Count Dona was some Days 'ago declared General of the Infantry. Though 'his Majesty has not yet settled his Court on a certain Foot, yet it appears that it is his Intention 'to be served almost wholly by Officers, which 'shall relieve one another every Six Months; and 'that he will augment their Pay proportionably, 'that they may attend both Services without Loss. 'In the mean time this Court applies it self particularly to regulate in the best Manner the State 'of the War and the Finances, and remedy the 'tediousness of Suits and other Abuses in the Affairs of Judicature. His Majesty has made a Present 'to the Queen of the House and Gardens which belonged to the Countess of Wartemberg. The 'Jewess Liebman is under continual Prosecutions; 'this Affair is still under Examination, and seems 'to threaten an Issue much to her Disadvantage. 'The King has sent a Counter-Order to the Count 'de Metternicht, not to depart from Utrecht till 'further Directions. Some Advices from Vienna 'say, that the Infection begins to shew it self 'there, so that 'tis thought his Imperial Majesty 'will be obliged to remove to Prague.

Brussels, March 30. The deposed Council of State continues to Assemble at the House of M. Vander Ghoten, expecting Answers to several Letters they have sent to Vienna, London, Utrecht, and the Hague, with Proposals of Accommodation. The President of the new Council having demanded the Great Seal from the old Council, was answered, they had sent it to Vienna. The States of Brabant, Flanders, and Hainault, are Assembled, but will not intermeddle in this Affair. The Magistracy of Louvain has acknowledged the new Council, and applied to them for a new Burgomaster.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gazettes, dated April 7.

Brussels, April 3. We begin already to enjoy the good Effects of the Change which has been made in our Regency; for the new Council of State have found Means to pay two Months to the Foot who were much in Arrear, and are now Deliberating on Means to provide also for the Horse. Last Thursday they annulled all the Taxes which were established by the former Regency, and with which the People were very uneasy. However, the deposed Members flatter themselves with Hopes that their Affair will be accommodated, and that they shall be restored to their Offices; but it is not believed that this will be done. The 29th or 30th in the Night, a Party of the Enemy made a new Attempt to fire our Magazines of Hay, but the Guards perceiving them, they were obliged to retire without their having done any Damage.

From the Cantonment at Anderlecht, April 3. The Convoy of Ammunition designed for Aire was sent away this Morning under a Guard of our Troops and of those of the Garrison of Brussels. The Enemy make no Motions yet on the Frontier, neither are they yet compleatly recruited or remounted. In the mean time the Contractors for Provisions and Forrage continue to fill the Magazines of Namur, Charleroy, and Maubeuge, for the Supply of that Body of the Army which is to be formed between the Sambre and the Meuse. On the first Instant at Midnight, one of their Parties carried away by Surprize the Standards and Kettle-Drums belonging to the Regiment of Athlone, together with the Major and about 20 Men. In this Action some Men on both Sides were killed.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 8.

Brussels, April 6. A French Party of 32 Men designed to have set fire a second time to our Magazines of Hay, but a Party of Imperialists of between 30 and 40 Men attacked them at Over Ische, killed the Officer that commanded them, with 5 Soldiers, and made the rest Prisoners. We have not yet taken the Party that carried away the Kettle-Drums belonging to the Regiment of Athlone; it is believed they lie concealed in the Woods. The great Convoy which was sent from hence on Monday to Mons, is arrived there in Safety. Another is ſent to Ath. The Place from whence the Enemy endeavoured to burn our Magazines of Hay, will be incloſed with a Line. The States of Brabant reaſſemble this Day. The laſt Regency have cauſed a kind of Narrative to be printed and diſperſed in their Juſtification: But it ſeems to have had a contrary Effect in the Minds of the People, becauſe a Letter of Count Sinzendorff's of the 24th of March is referred to in it, which however ſays amongſt other things, "That ſince they have "their Inſtructions from the two maritime Powers, "and have taken the Oaths to them as repreſent- "ing his Imperial and Royal Majeſty, he (Count "Sinzendorff) was of Opinion that they ought to "obey the ſaid Powers, til his Maſter the Em- "perour was put in Poſſeſſion of the Spaniſh Ne- "therlands. This Moment we have Advice, that the States of Haynalt have acknowledged the new Regency, and there is Reaſon to believe that thoſe of Flanders will do the ſame. We hear from Namur, that the Troops in that Garriſon have Orders to be in a readineſs to march, tho' moſt of the Regiments are not yet equipped and mounted.
